

Camelli House – Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Q: Who can apply to live at Camelli House?

A: We welcome individuals seeking a peaceful, structured living environment — including veterans, those in recovery, or anyone rebuilding their life. Rooms are designed for single occupancy only, providing privacy, safety, and comfort.

Q: What's included in the rent?

A: All utilities, Wi-Fi, furnishings, and access to shared spaces (kitchen, living room, laundry area, and bathrooms) are included in your monthly rent.

Q: How much does it cost to live at Camelli House?

A: Rates start at $650 per month, depending on room availability and size. A $250 security deposit is required at move-in to reserve your room.

Q: Do residents sign a lease?

A: No. Residents do not sign a traditional residential lease. Instead, each resident completes a simple month-to-month license agreement, which provides flexibility and clear guidelines for living arrangements.

Q: Can I bring my own furniture?

A: Each room comes fully furnished with essentials — including a bed, dresser, and seating. You're welcome to bring small personal touches such as décor, bedding, or lamps to make your space feel like home.

Q: Are there house rules?

A: Yes. To maintain a respectful and peaceful environment, all residents agree to follow house guidelines regarding cleanliness, quiet hours, guests, and mutual respect. These rules ensure Camelli House remains safe and comfortable for everyone.

Q: Is smoking or drinking allowed?

A: Camelli House is a smoke-free and drug-free environment. Residents are expected to maintain sobriety and respect the home's peaceful, recovery-friendly atmosphere. However, there is a designated outdoor area available for smoking cigarettes or cigars.

Q: Is there on-site staff or support available?

A: Yes. Management is available to ensure the home remains clean, safe, and well-maintained. Residents can reach out at any time for maintenance or support needs.

Q: What is the move-in process like?

A: Once your application is approved, you'll complete your license agreement, submit the $250 deposit, and schedule your move-in date. Rooms are move-in ready, so you can settle in right away.

Q: How long can I stay at Camelli House?

A: There is no set time limit. As long as residents continue to meet house expectations and maintain a positive living environment, they're welcome to stay on a month-to-month basis.

Q: Are guests allowed?

A: For safety and privacy reasons, overnight guests are not permitted. However, daytime visits are allowed with prior approval from management.

Q: Is parking available?

A: Yes, limited on-site parking is available for residents. Street parking may also be used as needed.

Q: Are pets allowed?

A: To maintain cleanliness and comfort for all residents, pets are not permitted at this time.

Q: How do I apply to live at Camelli House?

A: You can complete the online application form on our website under the "Apply" page. Once we receive your application, we'll reach out to schedule a brief interview or tour.
